RECOMMENDED FINAL CASH OFFER

for

by

ROME UK BIDCO LIMITED

a company formed on behalf of funds managed by Apollo Management IX, L.P.
("Apollo")

to be effected by means of a Scheme of Arrangement
under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

Summary

- The boards of directors of Rome UK Bidco Limited (the "Bidder") and RPC Group Plc ("RPC") are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended offer pursuant to which the Bidder will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of RPC (the "Acquisition").
- The Bidder is a newly incorporated company formed on behalf of funds managed by Apollo.
- Under the terms of the Acquisition, each RPC Shareholder will be entitled to receive:

in respect of each RPC Share: 782 pence in cash (the "Consideration")
- In addition, under the terms of the Acquisition, RPC Shareholders will be entitled to receive the previously declared interim dividend of 8.1 pence per RPC Share to be paid on 25 January 2019 to RPC Shareholders on the register at 28 December 2018 (the "Interim Dividend") without any consequential reduction in the Consideration, subject to and on the terms set out in paragraph 16 of this Announcement.
- The Bidder's offer is final and the Consideration will not be increased.
- The Consideration, together with the Interim Dividend, represents:
 - a premium of 15.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 683.6 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period);
 - a premium of 25.0 per cent. to the adjusted unaffected price of 631.9 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the Closing Price per RPC Share on the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period, adjusted for the 7.6 per cent. decline in the FTSE 250 index over the course of the Offer Period);

- a premium of 13.9 per cent. to the 30 day VWAP of 693.4 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement);
 - a premium of 7.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 734.0 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement); and
 - a value of £3,323 million for RPC's issued and to be issued share capital.
- The RPC Directors, who have been so advised by Rothschild & Co, Credit Suisse and Evercore as to the financial terms of the Acquisition, consider the terms of the Acquisition to be fair and reasonable. In providing their financial advice to the RPC Directors, Rothschild & Co, Credit Suisse and Evercore have taken into account the commercial assessments of the RPC Directors.
 - Accordingly, the RPC Directors intend to recommend unanimously that RPC Shareholders vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the RPC Resolutions at the RPC General Meeting, as the RPC Directors have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their own beneficial holdings, and have undertaken to use reasonable endeavours to procure in respect of the beneficial holdings of their close relatives, being 996,181 RPC Shares in total representing approximately 0.2 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of RPC in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date. Further details of those irrevocable undertakings are set out in paragraph 17 of, and Appendix III to, this Announcement.
 - The Bidder has also received a letter of intent from Eminence Capital to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the RPC General Meeting in respect of a total of 2,996,835 RPC Shares, representing approximately 0.74 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date. Further details of this letter of intent are set out in paragraph 17 of this Announcement.
 - It is intended that the Acquisition will be effected by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement of RPC pursuant to Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006, further details of which are contained in the full text of this Announcement and which will be set out in the Scheme Document. However, the Bidder reserves the right (in accordance with the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer (with the consent of the Panel).
 - The Acquisition will be subject to the Conditions and certain further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement.
 - The Scheme Document will include further details of the Scheme, together with notices of the Court Meeting and the RPC General Meeting and the expected timetable, and will specify the action to be taken by RPC Shareholders. The Scheme Document will be sent to RPC Shareholders as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event (save with the consent of the Panel), within 28 days of this Announcement. The Scheme is expected to become Effective in the second quarter of 2019, subject to the satisfaction or (where applicable) waiver of the Conditions.
 - The Scheme will be governed by English law and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England. The Scheme will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the Listing Rules, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.

Commenting on the Acquisition, Jamie Pike, Chairman of RPC, said:

"The Board believes that the offer recognises the quality of RPC's businesses and the strength of their future prospects. In July I stated that differing investor views on the appropriate level of gearing was constraining the group's ability to pursue opportunities for growth and, as such, putting pressure on RPC's valuation. I also said that the Board was working to resolve this situation. Today's announcement is the culmination of that process. The Board believes that the offer of £7.82 per share is a good outcome for shareholders and intends to recommend unanimously that they accept this offer."

This summary should be read in conjunction with, and is subject to, the full text of this Announcement (including its appendices).

The Acquisition will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement and to the full terms and conditions which will be set out in the Scheme Document. Appendix II to this Announcement contains the sources of information and bases of calculations of certain information contained in this Announcement. Appendix III to this Announcement contains details of the irrevocable undertakings received in relation to the Acquisition. Appendix IV to this Announcement contains definitions of certain expressions used in this summary and in this Announcement.

Further Information

This Announcement is provided for information purposes only. It is not intended to and does not constitute, or form part of, an offer, invitation or the solicitation of an offer or invitation to purchase, otherwise acquire, subscribe for, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of any securities, or the solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction, pursuant to the Acquisition or otherwise, nor will there be any sale, issuance, exchange or transfer of securities of RPC pursuant to the Acquisition or otherwise in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable law.

The Acquisition will be subject to English law and to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the Listing Rules, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.

The Acquisition will be implemented solely pursuant to the terms of the Scheme Document (or, in the event that the Acquisition is to be implemented by means of a Takeover Offer, the Offer Document), which will contain the full terms and conditions of the Acquisition, including details of how to vote in respect of the Acquisition. Any decision in respect of the Scheme or other response in relation to the Acquisition by RPC Shareholders should be made only on the basis of the information contained in the Scheme Document. RPC Shareholders are advised to read the Scheme Document (including the related Forms of Proxy) carefully once these become available because they will contain important information in relation to the Acquisition.

The Bidder reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the acquisition of the RPC Shares by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the Takeover Offer will be implemented on substantially the same terms, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme, subject to appropriate amendments to reflect, among other things, the change in structure by which the Acquisition is to be implemented and compliance with all applicable laws, including US securities laws.

Restricted Jurisdictions

The release, publication or distribution of this Announcement in, into or from jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law and therefore any persons into whose possession this Announcement comes who are subject to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable requirements. In particular, the ability of persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom to vote their RPC Shares with respect to the Scheme at the Court Meeting, to execute and deliver forms of proxy appointing another to vote at the Court Meeting on their behalf may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in which they are located. Any failure to comply with such requirements or restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the companies and other persons involved in the Acquisition disclaim any responsibility or liability for any violation of such restrictions by any person.

This Announcement has been prepared for the purpose of complying with English law, the Takeover Code, the Market Abuse Regulation and the Disclosure and Transparency Rules and the information disclosed may not be the same as that which would have been disclosed if this Announcement had been prepared in accordance with the laws and regulations of jurisdictions outside England.

Unless otherwise determined by the Bidder or required by the Takeover Code, and permitted by applicable law and regulation, the Acquisition will not be made available, directly or indirectly, in, into or from a Restricted Jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction. No person may vote in favour of the Acquisition by any use, means, instrumentality or form, and the Acquisition will not be capable of acceptance, from or within a Restricted Jurisdiction, if to do so would constitute a violation of the laws of that jurisdiction. Accordingly, copies of this Announcement and any formal documentation relating to the Acquisition are not being, and must not be, directly or indirectly, mailed, transmitted or otherwise forwarded, distributed or sent in, into or from a Restricted Jurisdiction, where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction, and persons receiving this Announcement and all documents relating to the Acquisition (including custodians, nominees and trustees) must not mail or otherwise distribute or send them in, into or from Restricted Jurisdictions, where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction. If the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer (unless otherwise permitted by applicable law and regulation) the Takeover Offer may not be made directly or indirectly, in or into, or by the use of mails or any means or instrumentality (including but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of any Restricted Jurisdiction and the Takeover Offer may not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facilities.

Further details in relation to RPC Shareholders who are resident in, ordinarily resident in, or citizens of, jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom will be contained in the Scheme Document.

Additional information for US investors

The Acquisition relates to the shares of a UK company and is being made by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under the Companies Act. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer rules or the proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Acquisition is subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the United Kingdom to schemes of arrangement which differ from the disclosure requirements of United States tender offer and proxy solicitation rules and the US Securities Act. If, in the future, the Bidder exercises the right to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer and determines to extend the offer into the United States, the Acquisition will be made in compliance with applicable United States laws and regulations, including any applicable exemptions under the US Exchange Act. Financial information included in this Announcement and the Scheme Document has been or will have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom that may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

The receipt of cash consideration by a US holder for the transfer of its RPC Shares pursuant to the Scheme will likely be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each RPC Shareholder is urged to consult his independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of the Acquisition applicable to him, including under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws.

It may be difficult for US holders of RPC Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal securities laws, since the Bidder and RPC are located primarily in a non-US jurisdiction, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-US jurisdiction. US holders of RPC Shares may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to the jurisdiction and judgment of a US court.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

This Announcement contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of RPC and certain plans and objectives of the Bidder with respect thereto. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. These statements are based on assumptions and assessments made by RPC, and/or the Bidder in light of their experience and their perception of historical trends, current conditions, future developments and other factors they believe appropriate. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty, because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future and the factors described in the context of such forward-looking statements in this Announcement could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Neither the Bidder nor RPC assumes or undertakes any obligation to update, revise or correct any of the information contained in this Announcement including without limitation any forward-looking statements (whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise), except as required by applicable law.

There are several factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business combinations or dispositions. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Bidder or RPC or any person acting on either company's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof.

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror, save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at <http://www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk>, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the Offer Period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. If you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure, you should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129.

In accordance with the Code, normal United Kingdom market practice and Rule 14e-5(b) of the US Exchange Act, Barclays and its affiliates will continue to act as exempt principal trader in RPC securities on the London Stock Exchange. These purchases and activities by exempt principal traders which are required to be made public in the United Kingdom pursuant to the Code will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com.

for

by

ROME UK BIDCO LIMITED

a company formed on behalf of funds managed by Apollo Management IX, L.P. ("Apollo") to be effected by means of a Scheme of Arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

1 Introduction

The boards of directors of the Bidder and RPC are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended offer pursuant to which the Bidder will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of RPC. It is intended that the Acquisition will be effected by means of a scheme of arrangement of RPC to be made pursuant to Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 (the "Scheme").

The Bidder is a newly incorporated company formed on behalf of funds managed by Apollo.

2 The Acquisition

Under the terms of the Acquisition, which will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out below and in Appendix I and the full terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Document, each RPC Shareholder will be entitled to receive:

in respect of each RPC Share: 782 pence in cash (the "Consideration")

Under the terms of the Acquisition, RPC Shareholders will be entitled to receive the previously declared interim dividend of 8.1 pence per RPC Share to be paid on 25 January 2019 to RPC Shareholders on the register at 28 December 2018 (the "Interim Dividend") without any consequential reduction in the Consideration, subject to and on the terms set out in paragraph 16 of this Announcement.

If any dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution is announced, declared, made or paid by RPC in respect of RPC Shares on or after the date of this Announcement and prior to the Effective Date, other than the Interim Dividend, the Consideration payable in respect of each RPC Share under the Acquisition will be reduced by the amount of all or part of any such dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution.

The Bidder's offer is final and the Consideration will not be increased.

The Consideration, together with the Interim Dividend, represents:

- a premium of 15.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 683.6 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period);
- a premium of 25.0 per cent. to the adjusted unaffected price of 631.9 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the Closing Price per RPC Share on the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period, adjusted for the 7.6 per cent. decline in the FTSE 250 index over the course of the Offer Period);
- a premium of 13.9 per cent. to the 30 day VWAP of 693.4 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement);
- a premium of 7.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 734.0 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement); and

- a value of £3,323 million for RPC's issued and to be issued share capital.

3 Background to and reasons for the Acquisition

The Bidder believes that RPC, which benefits from leading market positions, a well-diversified portfolio in terms of customer base, product mix and geographical exposures for both packaging and non-packaging plastic products, and which has the necessary scale to benefit from a global polymer market, is well placed to take advantage of opportunities for growth, investment and further consolidation in the plastic packaging industry.

Funds managed by affiliates of Apollo have significant experience in the broader packaging industry in general, and the plastic packaging industry in particular, including through their previous ownership of Berry Plastics (now Berry Global), a global manufacturer and marketer of plastic packaging products operating in the United States. In particular, the strategy for the Berry Plastics investment involved a significant "buy and build" component, with Berry Plastics making 14 further acquisitions during the life of the investment.

When the directors of RPC decided to explore the sale of RPC and solicit interest from parties who understood the potential of RPC's business (as described further in paragraph 6 below), Apollo pursued the opportunity because it believed that, through having a well-developed understanding of the challenges as well as the opportunities in the broader packaging industry in general, and the plastic packaging industry in particular, funds managed by Apollo would be ideally well placed to help RPC navigate the challenges while continuing with its growth strategy in order to try and capitalise on the opportunities for the benefit of all stakeholders.

4 Financing of the Acquisition

The Bidder is providing the Consideration payable to RPC Shareholders pursuant to the terms of the Acquisition through a combination of equity financing to be provided by funds managed by Apollo and third party debt to be provided under an interim facilities agreement arranged by Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas Fortis SA/NV, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, HSBC Bank plc, Jefferies Finance LLC and Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A. trading as Rabobank London.

Barclays and Citi, as lead financial advisers to the Bidder, are satisfied that sufficient cash resources are available to the Bidder to enable it to satisfy in full the Consideration payable to RPC Shareholders under the terms of the Acquisition.

Further information on the financing of the Acquisition will be set out in the Scheme Document.

5 Recommendations

The RPC Directors, who have been so advised by Rothschild & Co, Credit Suisse and Evercore as to the financial terms of the Acquisition, consider the terms of the Acquisition to be fair and reasonable. In providing their financial advice to the RPC Directors, Rothschild & Co, Credit Suisse and Evercore have taken into account the commercial assessments of the RPC Directors. Rothschild & Co is providing independent advice to the RPC Directors for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Takeover Code.

Accordingly, the RPC Directors intend to recommend unanimously that RPC Shareholders vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the RPC Resolutions at the RPC General Meeting, as they have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their entire beneficial holdings of RPC Shares, and as they have irrevocably undertaken to use reasonable endeavours to procure in respect of the beneficial holdings of their close relatives, amounting in aggregate to 996,181 RPC Shares, representing approximately 0.2 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date.

6 Background to and reasons for the recommendation

RPC has a strong competitive position and an excellent reputation in the market. Whilst the RPC Board is confident in the long-term prospects of the business, it is also mindful of the risks to the business posed by the current political and macro-economic environment, amongst other factors, and as previously noted, differing investor views on the appropriate level of leverage have been a constraint on RPC's opportunities and growth. In the view of the RPC Board, RPC's share price had for some time prior to the commencement of the Offer Period undervalued both the fundamental performance and the prospects of the business.

In view of the considerations above, the RPC Board and its financial advisers considered the possibility of shareholder value being maximised through an offer for RPC and, as announced on 10 September 2018, RPC entered into discussions with a number of parties, including Apollo and Bain Capital.

These discussions were part of a competitive process conducted by the RPC Board. This Announcement represents the culmination of these discussions.

Having been so advised by its financial advisers, the RPC Board believes that the terms of the Acquisition, being the best and highest offer forthcoming to the RPC Board, are fair and reasonable.

Although the RPC Board is confident about RPC's future prospects, the RPC Board considers that, in the absence of the Acquisition, it would be unlikely that RPC Shares would trade at the valuation levels implied by the Acquisition in the short to medium term. In addition, the Acquisition provides an opportunity for all RPC Shareholders to obtain liquidity for their investment.

In considering whether to recommend the Acquisition, the RPC Board took into account, inter alia, the following:

- the factors summarised above, including the current political and macro-economic environment, differing investor views on the appropriate level of leverage limiting prospects for growth, and the performance of the RPC's share price relative to RPC's underlying financial performance and prospects;
- the views expressed by some of RPC's larger shareholders to the RPC Board / RPC's financial advisers;
- the price offered to RPC Shareholders, which at 782 pence per RPC Share, together with the Interim Dividend, represents:
 - a premium of 15.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 683.6 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period);
 - a premium of 25.0 per cent. to the adjusted unaffected price of 631.9 pence per RPC Share on 7 September 2018 (being the Closing Price per RPC Share on the last Business Day prior to the commencement of the Offer Period, adjusted for the 7.6 per cent. decline in the FTSE 250 index over the course of the Offer Period);
 - a premium of 13.9 per cent. to the 30 day VWAP of 693.4 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement);
 - a premium of 7.6 per cent. to the Closing Price of 734.0 pence per RPC Share on 22 January 2019 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this Announcement); and

- a value of £3,323 million for RPC's issued and to be issued share capital;
- the RPC Board having conducted a competitive process involving multiple interested parties which culminated in this Announcement, representing the best and highest offer forthcoming to the RPC Board;
- although the RPC Board is confident about RPC's future prospects, the RPC Board considered that it would be unlikely that RPC Shares would trade at the valuation levels implied by the Acquisition in the short to medium term; and
- the fact that the Acquisition provides an opportunity for all RPC Shareholders to obtain liquidity for their investment.

7 Information on Apollo and the Bidder

Information on Apollo

Apollo is a Delaware limited partnership that manages a number of investment funds (including Apollo Investment Fund IX, L.P.) comprising the Apollo Fund IX Group. These investment funds closed to investors on 31 December 2017 with total commitments of $24.7 billion. Apollo and its affiliates are one of the leading global alternative investment managers, with assets under management of approximately $270 billion as of 30 September 2018.

Information on the Bidder

The Bidder is a newly incorporated company under the laws of England and Wales, formed by Apollo on behalf of funds managed by it, for the purpose of undertaking the Acquisition.

8 Information on RPC

RPC is a leading international design and engineering company of plastic products for both packaging and selected non-packaging markets. RPC operates in 33 countries and employs approximately 25,000 people. RPC serves a wide range of customers, including many blue-chip organisations across food and non-food packaging, personal and healthcare and other segments, and has a strong track record of technical expertise and product innovation across multiple polymer conversion processes.

RPC's strategy is to grow and develop leading positions in its chosen product-markets and geographies in the plastics industry, by establishing strong long-term relationships with its customers and by developing high quality, innovative products that meet customers' needs.

RPC is headquartered in England and operates throughout the UK, across mainland Europe, Africa, Asia and in the US. RPC's ordinary shares are admitted to the premium segment of the Official List and to trading on the main market of the London Stock Exchange.

RPC's end markets include:

Food: RPC produces packaging ranges across many consumer food markets, often involving complex, lightweight or functional value-added designs for markets including dairy and sauce, or incorporating barrier technology for increased shelf-life.

Beverage: RPC manufactures a range of innovative caps and closures for sports drinks and other beverages; coffee capsules and other single serve systems.

Non-Food: RPC has broad capability across the non-food space - and in particular standard product ranges, including strong market positions in industrial containers as well as those for surface coverings.

Healthcare: Inhalers, dose counters and other medical devices are produced by RPC, as well as containers and closures for over the counter and prescription medicines.

Personal Care: Focusing primarily on the beauty and cosmetics markets, RPC's operations in the personal care market covers multi-part packaging, including dispensing systems, as well as standard product ranges.

Technical Components: RPC's expertise in technical components covers the production of complex engineered precision moulded components; products for serving the temporary waste solutions market; products manufactures using rotational moulding technology for materials handling and speciality vehicles markets.

RPC operates on a divisional model, with 34 strategic business units spread across seven divisions. Each division combines sites with similar technologies whose expertise centres on specific product and market segments. Regardless of divisional segmentation, close working partnerships exist throughout the RPC Group to facilitate a healthy and constant exchange of knowledge and ideas, and ensure that the RPC Group is always developing the best and most appropriate product for each customer, utilising and combining the necessary skills from anywhere within the RPC Group.

For the financial year ended 31 March 2018, RPC's revenue was £3,747.7 million (2017: £2,747.2 million). For the six months ended 30 September 2018 (reported on 28 November 2018), RPC's revenue was £1,892 million (2017: £1,770 million).

9 Intentions of the Bidder

Business of the RPC Group

The Bidder believes that RPC represents an attractive investment opportunity, as it believes that the breadth and scale of RPC's operations in plastic packaging will allow it to maintain and further improve its position in product development, innovation and purchasing, as well as to continue to take advantage of the highly fragmented market in the plastic packaging industry in Europe and North America in particular.

The Bidder is confident in the overall prospects of RPC's business and the sectors in which it supplies packaging and other plastic solutions, and it is excited to support RPC management team to continue to enhance the quality of its product offering and to grow the value of the business in the longer term.

The Bidder also believes that in order to maximise its future growth potential, RPC will be better suited to a private company environment, where both acquisitions and initiatives relating to the performance and development of its businesses can be implemented effectively, with appropriate support, capital and assistance from the Bidder and without the costs, constraints and distractions associated with being a listed company.

Prior to this Announcement, consistent with market practice, the Bidder has been granted access to RPC's senior management for the purposes of confirmatory due diligence. However, because of the RPC Group's decentralised management structure, and the constraints of a public offer process, it was not possible for RPC to provide the Bidder with sufficient access at either a divisional, business unit or manufacturing site level to enable the Bidder to formulate detailed plans or intentions regarding the impact of the Acquisition on the RPC Group and its business or its employees.

The objective of the Bidder's strategy for the RPC Group is to enhance long-term value for all stakeholders by creating a more profitable and capital efficient business. The strategy involves supporting RPC management's strategy of further building the RPC Group through acquisitions, while also focusing on long-term profitable organic growth and capital allocation across the RPC Group.

In relation to acquisitions, the Bidder will both review the pipeline of potential acquisition opportunities which have been identified by RPC management and identify other potential acquisition opportunities based on its knowledge of the plastic packaging industry. The Bidder expects that its assessment of potential acquisition opportunities, which will be part of the evaluation described below, will involve identifying businesses whose size, geographic footprint and/or product range are strategic to RPC's existing operations and consistent with the Bidder's objective to create long-term value for all stakeholders. The Bidder expects that such acquisition opportunities would largely be focused on the European and North American markets.

RPC has also, as part of management's strategy, made a number of one-off disposals of particular business line or manufacturing sites. The Bidder is supportive of management's current strategy that focuses on products and/or markets where it has scale and competitive advantage and the Bidder will, together with RPC management, continue to evaluate, on a case-by-case basis, potential disposal opportunities in relation to non-material, non-core manufacturing sites or business units. Such disposals could involve changes to RPC's business activities, places of business and fixed asset base. If any divestments are made, the number of employees employed within the RPC Group would also be reduced.

The Bidder will work with RPC management to understand how the RPC Group's recent acquisitions have been integrated and to evaluate whether there are areas in which it may be possible for the RPC Group to achieve further synergies in relation to such recent acquisitions, in particular with regards to purchasing.

Following this Announcement, the Bidder intends to work with RPC's management to undertake an evaluation of the RPC Group. While the parameters of the review have not yet been finalised, the Bidder expects that it will involve an evaluation of the short-term and long-term objectives for each of the RPC Group's seven divisions and the business units within each of them. This evaluation, which is expected to last up to 12 months after the Scheme has become Effective, will focus on:

- reviewing the strategy of each of the RPC Group's seven divisions and the business units within each division, including their product ranges, markets and customers, which could include strategic acquisitions or targeted disposals in line with management's strategy applied over the past few years;
- identifying product ranges and end markets where increased R&D and/or capital investment, simplification of product ranges and/or increased co-ordination between different manufacturing sites or business units can help drive long-term profitable growth;
- considering enhancements to RPC management's strategy to further invest in the development of environmentally friendly packaging solutions in response to growing environmental concerns; and
- considering initiatives across the RPC Group's different business units to optimise cash flow generation and return on capital invested.

The Bidder understands the importance of innovation to RPC's business, and intends to continue to invest in and develop the RPC Group's design centres, with a view to ensuring in particular that RPC continues to be at the forefront of the development of more sophisticated packaging solutions to optimise re-use and recyclability.

Employees, locations of places of business and redeployment of fixed assets

The Bidder has not yet begun to carry out the evaluation referred to above and has not reached any conclusions as to its likely outcome or made any decisions in relation to any specific actions that may be taken as a result of this evaluation. The Bidder therefore cannot be certain what impact there will be on the employment of, and the balance of skills and functions of, the management and employees of the RPC Group, or the location of the places of business or deployment of the fixed assets of the RPC Group.

As part of its evaluation, the Bidder will be carrying out a review of the RPC Group's executive management and an assessment of potential alterations to the structure and/or composition of executive management and this may lead to changes in the composition and/or functions of central, divisional or local management (including, potentially, the removal of overlaps). The Bidder does not have specific proposals for any changes in the composition and/or functions of central, divisional or local executive management, other than as described below.

In order to provide support and assistance to RPC in the performance and development of its businesses, the Bidder expects to involve individuals from Apollo's network of operating partners in the business of the RPC Group at board level to provide additional senior operational experience. As part of this, the Bidder proposes that Jon Rich, formerly the Chairman and CEO of Berry Plastics, would be appointed as the non-executive chairman of the board of the Bidder following the Scheme becoming Effective.

The Bidder intends to safeguard the existing employment rights of the management and employees of RPC in accordance with applicable law and does not envisage any material change in the conditions of employment of the management and employees of RPC, other than the possible implementation of incentivisation arrangements for certain members of management referred to in paragraph 13.

Once RPC ceases to be a listed company, a limited number of central corporate and support functions, including PLC-related functions, may be reduced in scope or become unnecessary. In the first instance, RPC management proposes to identify after the date of this Announcement how individuals who are involved in those functions may be reassigned to other appropriate roles within the RPC Group prior to or with effect from the Scheme becoming Effective. The Bidder intends to support any steps taken by RPC management to reassign individuals in this way. The Bidder and RPC management intend, following the date on which the Scheme becomes Effective, to evaluate potential alternative locations for RPC Group's headquarters and headquarters functions, taking into account the location of the RPC Group's operations, the composition of the board of the Bidder after the Scheme becomes Effective, and other relevant factors. No step has been taken to date to identify any such locations.

In addition, the Bidder has agreed with RPC in the Co-operation Agreement certain arrangements in respect of (a) bonus determinations for management and employees of the RPC Group, (b) the treatment of outstanding options and awards over RPC Shares under the RPC Share Plans, and (c) the provision to RPC Group employees whose employment is terminated (other than for gross misconduct) within 12 months following completion of the Acquisition of termination benefits no less favourable than those to which they would have been entitled, or which were provided for under an RPC policy applicable to such employee, immediately prior to the Announcement.

The non-executive directors of RPC intend to resign as directors of RPC with effect from completion of the Acquisition.

Pensions

The RPC Group sponsors three DB Schemes, being the RPC Scheme, the M&H Plan and the BPP Scheme.

The governing documentation in respect of each of the RPC Scheme and the BPP Scheme provides that these schemes are closed to the admission of new members and future accrual by existing members.

The governing documentation in respect of the M&H Plan provides that (except for members who are entitled to lump sum death in service benefits only) the scheme is closed to new entrants but remains open to accrual of further benefits by existing members. The Bidder has no plans to terminate accrual under the M&H Plan for existing members.

Subject to any specific agreements reached with the trustees of each DB Scheme, the Bidder plans to maintain contributions payable to the DB Schemes under existing schedules of contributions entered into pursuant to Part 3 of the Pensions Act 2004.

The Bidder has held constructive discussions with the trustees of each of the DB Schemes in relation to the impact of the Acquisition on each DB Scheme. The Bidder has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the trustee of the M&H Plan and is in advanced negotiations regarding memoranda of understanding with the trustees of each of the RPC Scheme and the BPP Scheme. The memorandum of understanding in relation to the M&H Plan provides for mitigation on the impact of the Acquisition on the M&H Plan through the exclusion of the employer from the debt security package and a £10 million guarantee from M&H Group Limited. Under this memorandum of understanding, the trustees of the M&H Plan have confirmed that having regard to the mitigation provided, the Acquisition is not materially detrimental to the likelihood of benefits being received. The proposed memoranda of understanding with the trustees of each of the RPC Scheme and the BPP Scheme, if and when agreed and entered into, will provide for mitigation on the impact of the Acquisition on those schemes.

Trading facilities

RPC is currently listed on the Official List and, as set out in paragraph 15, a request will be made to the London Stock Exchange to cancel trading in RPC Shares and de-list RPC from the Official List, to take effect on or shortly after the Effective Date.

10 Acquisition-related Arrangements

Confidentiality Agreement

Apollo and RPC have entered into a confidentiality agreement dated 22 August 2018

(the "Confidentiality Agreement") pursuant to which Apollo has undertaken, among other things, to keep confidential information relating to RPC and not to disclose it to third parties (other than to permitted disclosees) unless, among other circumstances, required by law or regulation or at the request of applicable regulatory, governmental or supervisory organisations.

The Confidentiality Agreement also contains (i) undertakings from Apollo that, for a period of 12 months, subject to certain exceptions, it will not solicit certain senior and other employees of the RPC Group; and (ii) standstill provisions which restrict Apollo from acquiring or offering to acquire interests in securities of RPC; those provisions ceased to apply upon the making of this Announcement.

Co-operation Agreement

The Bidder, Apollo and RPC have entered into a co-operation agreement dated 23 January 2019 (the "Co-operation Agreement") pursuant to which:

- the Bidder has agreed to use all reasonable endeavours to secure the regulatory clearances and authorisations necessary to satisfy the regulatory conditions relating to the Acquisition; and
- Apollo, the Bidder and RPC have each agreed to certain undertakings to co-operate and provide each other with reasonable information, assistance and access in relation to the filings, submissions and notifications to be made in relation to such regulatory clearances and authorisations.

The Co-operation Agreement records the parties' intention to implement the Acquisition by each of Scheme, subject to the ability of the Bidder to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer with the consent of the Panel and (other than in certain circumstances set out in the Co-operation Agreement) RPC's prior written consent. The Co-operation Agreement will terminate in certain circumstances, including if the Scheme does not become Effective by the Long Stop Date.

Memorandum of Understanding with the trustee of the M&H Plan

As described in paragraph 9 above, the Bidder has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the trustee of the M&H Plan relating to the funding of the M&H Plan following completion of the Acquisition.

11 Conditions to the Acquisition

The Acquisition is subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document including, among other things:

- (i) the receipt of antitrust clearances in the European Union and in other relevant jurisdictions;
- (ii) the RPC Meetings being held no later than the 22nd day after the expected date of such meetings to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date as may be agreed by the Bidder and RPC and the Court may allow);
- (iii) the approval of the Scheme by the requisite majorities of RPC Shareholders at the RPC Meetings;
- (iv) the Scheme being sanctioned by the Court on or before the 22nd day after the expected date of the Court Sanction Hearing to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date as may be agreed by the Bidder and RPC and the Court may allow); and
- (v) the Scheme becoming Effective by the Long Stop Date.

12 The Scheme

It is intended that the Acquisition will be effected by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement between RPC and the Scheme Shareholders pursuant to Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006.

The purpose of the Scheme is to provide for the Bidder to become the holder of the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of RPC. This is to be achieved by the transfer of the Scheme Shares to the Bidder, in consideration for which the Scheme Shareholders will receive the Consideration.

To become Effective, the Scheme must be approved at the Court Meeting by a majority in number of the Scheme Shareholders (or the relevant class or classes thereof, if applicable) who are on the register of members of RPC at the Scheme Voting Record Time present and voting, whether in person or by proxy, representing three quarters or more of the votes attached to the Scheme Shares cast by those Scheme Shareholders (or the relevant class or classes thereof, if applicable). The Scheme also requires the passing at the RPC General Meeting of the RPC Resolutions. The RPC General Meeting is expected to be held immediately after the Court Meeting. Following the RPC Meetings, the Scheme must be sanctioned by the Court. Finally, a copy of the Court Order must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration, upon which the Scheme will become Effective.

The Scheme is also subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement and to the full terms and conditions that will be set out in the Scheme Document.

The Scheme Document will include full details of the Scheme, together with the notices convening the Court Meeting and the RPC General Meeting. The Scheme Document will also contain the expected timetable for the Acquisition, and will specify the necessary actions to be taken by RPC Shareholders. Subject to restrictions in respect of Restricted Jurisdictions, the Scheme Document will be sent to RPC Shareholders and, for information only, to persons with information rights and holders of options and/or awards granted under the RPC Share Plans, as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event (save with the consent of the Panel), within 28 days of this Announcement.

The Scheme is expected to become Effective in the second quarter of 2019, subject to the satisfaction or (where applicable) waiver of the Conditions. If the Scheme does not become Effective on or before the Long Stop Date, it will lapse and the Acquisition would not proceed (unless RPC and the Bidder otherwise agree and the Panel otherwise consents).

Upon the Scheme becoming Effective, (i) it will be binding on all RPC Shareholders, irrespective of whether or not they attended or voted at the Court Meeting or the RPC General Meeting (and if they attended and voted, whether or not they voted in favour); and (ii) share certificates in respect of RPC Shares will cease to be valid and entitlements to RPC Shares held in CREST will be cancelled. The Consideration payable under the Scheme will be despatched to Scheme Shareholders by the Bidder no later than 14 days after the Effective Date.

Upon the Scheme becoming Effective, the non-executive directors of RPC will resign as directors of RPC.

The Scheme will be governed by English law and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court. The Scheme will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.

13 Incentivisation arrangements

The Bidder believes that the ongoing participation of senior management of the RPC Group is very important to the future success of the RPC Group. Accordingly, the Bidder intends to put in place certain incentivisation arrangements for selected members of senior management of the RPC Group with effect from and/or following completion of the Acquisition. However, no discussions in relation to such arrangements have yet taken place.

14 RPC Share Plans

Participants in any of the RPC Share Plans will be contacted regarding the effect of the Acquisition on their rights under the RPC Share Plans and appropriate proposals will be made to such participants in due course. Details of the proposals will be set out in the Scheme Document and in separate letters to be sent to participants in the RPC Share Plans.

The Acquisition will apply to any RPC Shares which are unconditionally allotted, issued or transferred to satisfy the vesting of awards or the exercise of options under the RPC Share Plans prior to the Scheme Record Time.

The Co-operation Agreement contains certain agreed arrangements with respect to the treatment of outstanding awards and options over RPC Shares under the RPC Share Plans.

15 De-listing of RPC Shares and Re-Registration

It is intended that, prior to the Scheme becoming Effective, RPC will make an application for the cancellation of the listing of RPC Shares on the Official List and for the cancellation of trading of the RPC Shares on the London Stock Exchange's main market for listed securities, in each case to take effect on or shortly after the Effective Date. The Scheme Document will set out details of the expected last day of dealings in RPC Shares on the main market of the London Stock Exchange and the latest time for registration of transfers prior to the Effective Date.

The Bidder also proposes that, after the RPC Shares are delisted, RPC will be re-registered as a private company limited by shares.

16 RPC Dividends

Under the terms of the Acquisition, the Bidder has agreed that RPC Shareholders will be entitled to receive the Interim Dividend without any consequential reduction in the Consideration payable by the Bidder in respect of each RPC Share under the Acquisition. If any dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution is announced, declared, made or paid by RPC in respect of RPC Shares on or after the date of this Announcement and prior to the Effective Date, other than the Interim Dividend, the Consideration payable in respect of each RPC Share under the Acquisition will be reduced by the gross amount of all or part of any such dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution.

17 Irrevocable undertakings, letter of intent and letter of support

The Bidder has received irrevocable undertakings from each of the RPC Directors to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the RPC General Meeting in respect of the RPC Shares they each beneficially hold, and to use reasonable endeavours to procure the casting of votes in favour in respect of the RPC Shares beneficially held by their close relatives, amounting to a total of 996,181 RPC Shares, representing approximately 0.2 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date.

Further details of these irrevocable undertakings (including the circumstances in which they cease to have effect) are set out in Appendix III to this Announcement.

The Bidder has received a letter of intent from Eminence Capital to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the resolutions to be proposed at the RPC General Meeting in respect of a total of 2,996,835 RPC Shares, representing approximately 0.74 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date. Eminence Capital also holds an economic interest in a further 30,989,274 RPC Shares, representing approximately 7.62 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date, and its letter of intent also applies to any further RPC Shares over which Eminence Capital obtains discretionary management and voting control after the date of its letter of intent.⁽¹⁾

Canyon Capital, which holds a total economic exposure to 28,311,373 RPC Shares (representing approximately 6.97 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of RPC as at the Latest Practicable Date) pursuant to certain derivative contracts, but which does not have voting control over any RPC Shares, has also confirmed to the Bidder that it is supportive of the Acquisition.

(1) To the extent that Eminence Capital obtains discretionary management and voting control over any further RPC Shares, and the Bidder is notified of this by Eminence Capital, the Bidder will make an announcement of the information notified to it and the up-to-date total number of RPC Shares to which the letter of intent from Eminence Capital relates in accordance with Rule 2.10 of the Takeover Code.

18 Disclosure of Interests in RPC

Apollo made an Opening Position Disclosure setting out the details required to be disclosed by it under Rule 8.1(a) of the Takeover Code on 24 September 2018.

Save in respect of 95,586 RPC Shares, as described below, neither the Bidder, nor any of the Bidder Directors, nor, so far as the Bidder is aware, any person acting in concert (within the meaning of the Takeover Code) with it has: (i) any interest in or right to subscribe for any relevant securities (within the meaning of the Takeover Code) of RPC; nor (ii) any short positions in respect of any relevant securities of RPC (whether conditional or absolute and whether in the money or otherwise), including any short position under a derivative, any agreement to sell or any delivery obligation or right to require another person to purchase or take delivery; nor (iii) borrowed or lent any relevant securities of RPC (including, for these purposes, any financial collateral arrangements of the kind referred to in Note 4 on Rule 4.6 of the Takeover Code), nor is any such person party to any dealing arrangement of the kind referred to in Note 11 of the definition of "acting in concert" in the Takeover Code in relation to relevant securities of RPC:

Name	Capacity	Nature of Interest	Number of relevant securities held in RPC
AGF Insurance Limited	Concert Party	Ordinary Shares	42,168
Catalina Insurance Ireland DAC	Concert Party	Ordinary Shares	20,490
Catalina General Insurance Ltd and Catalina Insurance Ireland DAC ⁽¹⁾	Concert Party	Ordinary Shares	20,518
Catalina General Insurance Ltd and Catalina London Limited ⁽²⁾	Concert Party	Ordinary Shares	12,410
Total			95,586

(1) Catalina Insurance Ireland DAC holds a security interest in these shares which has been granted to it by Catalina General Insurance Ltd. Each of Catalina General Insurance Ltd and Catalina Insurance Ireland DAC is, in any event, deemed to be acting in concert with the Bidder.

(2) Catalina London Limited holds a security interest in these shares which has been granted to it by Catalina General Insurance Ltd. Each of Catalina General Insurance Ltd and Catalina London Limited is, in any event, deemed to be acting in concert with the Bidder.

'Interests in securities' for these purposes arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether absolute or conditional, to changes in the price of securities (and a person who only has a short position in securities is not treated as interested in those securities). In particular, a person will be treated as having an 'interest' by virtue of the ownership, voting rights or control of securities, or by virtue of any agreement to purchase, option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

The Bidder reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the acquisition of the RPC Shares by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the Takeover Offer will be implemented on substantially the same terms, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme, subject to appropriate amendments to reflect the change in structure by which the Acquisition is to be implemented (including, subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement, an acceptance condition set at 90 per cent. of the RPC Shares to which such Takeover Offer relates or such lesser percentage as the Bidder may decide in accordance with paragraph 8 of part B of Appendix I, subject to the Panel's consent) and compliance with all applicable laws, including US securities laws.

The Acquisition will be made on the terms and subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix I to this Announcement. The sources of information and bases of calculations contained in this Announcement are set out in Appendix II to this Announcement. A summary of the irrevocable undertakings is contained in Appendix III to this Announcement. Certain terms used in this Announcement are defined in Appendix IV to this Announcement.

Each of Barclays, Citi, BNP Paribas, HSBC, Rothschild & Co, Credit Suisse, Evercore, Jefferies and Deutsche Bank has given and not withdrawn its consent to the publication of this Announcement with the inclusion herein of the references to its name in the form and context in which it appears.

Further Information

This Announcement is provided for information purposes only. It is not intended to and does not constitute, or form part of, an offer, invitation or the solicitation of an offer or invitation to purchase, otherwise acquire, subscribe for, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of any securities, or the solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction, pursuant to the Acquisition or otherwise, nor will there be any sale, issuance, exchange or transfer of securities of RPC pursuant to the Acquisition or otherwise in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable law.

The Acquisition will be subject to English law and to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the Listing Rules, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.

The Acquisition will be implemented solely pursuant to the terms of the Scheme Document (or, in the event that the Acquisition is to be implemented by means of a Takeover Offer, the Offer Document), which will contain the full terms and conditions of the Acquisition, including details of how to vote in respect of the Acquisition. Any decision in respect of the Scheme or other response in relation to the Acquisition by RPC Shareholders should be made only on the basis of the information contained in the Scheme Document. RPC Shareholders are advised to read the Scheme Document (including the related Forms of Proxy) carefully once these become available because they will contain important information in relation to the Acquisition.

The Bidder reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the acquisition of the RPC Shares by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the Takeover Offer will be implemented on substantially the same terms, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme, subject to appropriate amendments to reflect, among other things, the change in structure by which the Acquisition is to be implemented and compliance with all applicable laws, including US securities laws.

Restricted Jurisdictions

The release, publication or distribution of this Announcement in, into or from jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom may be restricted by law and therefore any persons into whose possession this Announcement comes who are subject to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable requirements. In particular, the ability of persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom to vote their RPC Shares with respect to the Scheme at the Court Meeting, to execute and deliver forms of proxy appointing another to vote at the Court Meeting on their behalf may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in which they are located. Any failure to comply with such requirements or restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the companies and other persons involved in the Acquisition disclaim any responsibility or liability for any violation of such restrictions by any person.

This Announcement has been prepared for the purpose of complying with English law, the Takeover Code, the Market Abuse Regulation and the Disclosure and Transparency Rules and the information disclosed may not be the same as that which would have been disclosed if this Announcement had been prepared in accordance with the laws and regulations of jurisdictions outside England.

Unless otherwise determined by the Bidder or required by the Takeover Code, and permitted by applicable law and regulation, the Acquisition will not be made available, directly or indirectly, in, into or from a Restricted Jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction. No person may vote in favour of the Acquisition by any use, means, instrumentality or form, and the Acquisition will not be capable of acceptance, from or within a Restricted Jurisdiction, if to do so would constitute a violation of the laws of that jurisdiction. Accordingly, copies of this Announcement and any formal documentation relating to the Acquisition are not being, and must not be, directly or indirectly, mailed, transmitted or otherwise forwarded, distributed or sent in, into or from a Restricted Jurisdiction, where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction, and persons receiving this Announcement and all documents relating to the Acquisition (including custodians, nominees and trustees) must not mail or otherwise distribute or send them in, into or from Restricted Jurisdictions, where to do so would violate the laws in that jurisdiction. If the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer (unless otherwise permitted by applicable law and regulation) the Takeover Offer may not be made directly or indirectly, in or into, or by the use of mails or any means or instrumentality (including but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of any Restricted Jurisdiction and the Takeover Offer may not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facilities.

Further details in relation to RPC Shareholders who are resident in, ordinarily resident in, or citizens of, jurisdictions outside the United Kingdom will be contained in the Scheme Document.

Additional information for US investors

The Acquisition relates to the shares of a UK company and is being made by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under the Companies Act. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer rules or the proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Acquisition is subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the United Kingdom to schemes of arrangement which differ from the disclosure requirements of United States tender offer and proxy solicitation rules and the US Securities Act. If, in the future, the Bidder exercises the right to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer and determines to extend the offer into the United States, the Acquisition will be made in compliance with applicable United States laws and regulations, including any applicable exemptions under the US Exchange Act. Financial information included in this Announcement and the Scheme Document has been or will have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom that may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

The receipt of cash consideration by a US holder for the transfer of its RPC Shares pursuant to the Scheme will likely be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each RPC Shareholder is urged to consult his independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of the Acquisition applicable to him, including under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws.

It may be difficult for US holders of RPC Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal securities laws, since the Bidder and RPC are located primarily in a non-US jurisdiction, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-US jurisdiction. US holders of RPC Shares may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to the jurisdiction and judgment of a US court.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward Looking Statements

This Announcement contains certain forward-looking statements with respect to the financial condition, results of operations and business of RPC and certain plans and objectives of the Bidder with respect thereto. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements often use words such as "anticipate", "target", "expect", "estimate", "intend", "plan", "goal", "believe", "hope", "aims", "continue", "will", "may", "should", "would", "could", or other words of similar meaning (or the negative thereof). These statements are based on assumptions and assessments made by RPC, and/or the Bidder in light of their experience and their perception of historical trends, current conditions, future developments and other factors they believe appropriate. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty, because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future and the factors described in the context of such forward-looking statements in this Announcement could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements. Neither the Bidder nor RPC assumes or undertakes any obligation to update, revise or correct any of the information contained in this Announcement including without limitation any forward-looking statements (whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise), except as required by applicable law.

There are several factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business combinations or dispositions. All forward-looking statements attributable to the Bidder or RPC or any person acting on either company's behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof.

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror, save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at <http://www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk>, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the Offer Period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. If you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure, you should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129.

In accordance with the Code, normal United Kingdom market practice and Rule 14e-5(b) of the US Exchange Act, Barclays and its affiliates will continue to act as exempt principal trader in RPC securities on the London Stock Exchange. These purchases and activities by exempt principal traders which are required to be made public in the United Kingdom pursuant to the Code will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com. This information will also be publicly disclosed in the United States to the extent that such information is made public in the United Kingdom.

Electronic Communications

Please be aware that addresses, electronic addresses and certain other information provided by RPC Shareholders, persons with information rights and other relevant persons in connection with the receipt of communications from RPC may be provided to the Bidder during the Offer Period as required under Section 4 of Appendix 4 of the Takeover Code to comply with Rule 2.11(c) of the Takeover Code.

A copy of this Announcement and the documents required to be published by Rule 26 of the Takeover Code will be made available (subject to certain restrictions relating to persons resident in Restricted Jurisdictions) on RPC's website at <http://www.rpc-group.com> by no later than 12 noon (London time) on the Business Day following this Announcement. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the content of any website referred to in this Announcement nor the content of any website accessible from hyperlinks is incorporated into, or forms part of, this Announcement.

- (n) except as Fairly Disclosed, the Bidder not having discovered that:
 - (i) any past or present member, director, officer, employee or agent of the Wider RPC Group or any person that performs or has performed services (or otherwise acts or has acted) for or on behalf of any such company is or has engaged in any activity, practice or conduct which constitutes an offence under the Bribery Act 2010, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, as amended, or any other applicable anti-corruption legislation;

Part B: Certain further terms of the Acquisition

- 1 Subject to the requirements of the Panel, the Bidder reserves the right to waive:
 - (i) any of the Conditions set out in the above Condition 2 with respect to the timing of the Court Meeting, the RPC General Meeting and the Court Sanction Hearing. If any such deadline is not met, the Bidder will make an announcement by 8.00 am on the Business Day following such deadline confirming whether it has invoked or waived the relevant Condition or agreed with RPC to extend the deadline in relation to the relevant Condition. In all other respects, Condition 2 cannot be waived; and
 - (ii) in whole or in part, all or any of the above Conditions 3(a) to (n) (inclusive).

Conditions 3(a) to (n) (inclusive) must be fulfilled or waived by, no later than 11.59pm on the date immediately preceding the Court Sanction Hearing.

- 2 If the Bidder is required by the Panel to make an offer for RPC Shares under the provisions of Rule 9 of the Takeover Code, the Bidder may make such alterations to any of the above Conditions and terms of the Acquisition as are necessary to comply with the provisions of that Rule.

- 3 The Bidder shall be under no obligation to waive (if capable of waiver) or treat as fulfilled any of the Conditions by a date earlier than the latest date specified in paragraph 1 of this Part B for the fulfilment of those Conditions, notwithstanding that the other Conditions may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are at such earlier date no circumstances indicating that any such Condition may not be capable of fulfilment.
- 4 The Acquisition will lapse if:
- (i) in so far as the Acquisition or any matter arising from or relating to the Scheme or Acquisition constitutes a concentration with a Community dimension within the scope of the Regulation, the European Commission either initiates proceedings under Article 6(1)(c) of the Regulation or makes a referral to a competent authority in the United Kingdom under Article 9(1) of the Regulation and there is then a CMA Phase 2 Reference; or
 - (ii) the Acquisition or any matter arising from or relating to the Scheme or Acquisition becomes subject to a CMA Phase 2 Reference,
- in each case, before the date of the Court Meeting.
- 5 The RPC Shares to be acquired under the Acquisition will be acquired fully paid and free from all liens, equities, charges, encumbrances, options, rights of pre-emption and any other third party rights and interests of any nature and together with all rights now or hereafter attaching or accruing to them, including, without limitation, voting rights and the right to receive and retain in full all dividends and other distributions (if any) declared, made or paid, or any other return of capital (whether by reduction of share capital or share premium account or otherwise) made, on or after the Effective Date (other than the Interim Dividend and any dividend in respect of which a corresponding reduction in the consideration payable in respect of each RPC Share has been made as described in paragraph 6 below).
- 6 Without prejudice to any right the Bidder may have, with the consent of the Panel, to invoke Condition 3(j)(ii), if any dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of RPC Shares on or after the date of this Announcement and prior to the Effective Date, other than the Interim Dividend, the consideration payable in respect of each RPC Share shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the gross amount of all or part of any such dividend and/or other form of capital return or distribution, in which case any reference in this Announcement to the consideration payable in respect of each RPC Share under the Acquisition will be deemed to be a reference to the consideration as so reduced, and RPC Shareholders will be entitled to receive and retain the amount by reference to which the consideration has been reduced. To the extent that any such dividend and/or capital return and/or distribution is declared, made, paid or payable and it is (i) transferred pursuant to the Acquisition on a basis which entitles the Bidder to receive and retain it; or (ii) cancelled in full prior to payment, the consideration to be delivered by the Bidder under the terms of the Acquisition will not be subject to reduction in accordance with this paragraph 6. Any exercise by the Bidder of its rights referred to in this paragraph 6 shall be the subject of an announcement and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be regarded as constituting any revision or variation of the terms of the Acquisition.
- 7 Under Rule 13.5(a) of the Takeover Code, the Bidder may not invoke a Condition so as to cause the Acquisition not to proceed, to lapse or any offer to be withdrawn unless the circumstances which give rise to the right to invoke the Condition are of material significance to the Bidder in the context of the Acquisition. Conditions 2 and 3(a) (and any Takeover Offer acceptance condition adopted on the basis specified in paragraphs 2 or 8 of this Part B) are not subject to this provision of the Takeover Code.
- 8 The Bidder reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the acquisition of the RPC Shares by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such an event, the Takeover Offer will be implemented on the same terms so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme, subject to appropriate amendments, including, if the Panel so agrees and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement, an acceptance condition set at 90 per cent. of the RPC Shares to which such Takeover Offer relates or such other percentage as the Bidder may decide, subject to the Panel's consent and the terms of the Co-operation Agreement, provided that the acceptance condition will not be satisfied unless any member of the Wider Bidder Group shall have acquired or agreed to acquire (whether pursuant to the Takeover Offer or otherwise), directly or indirectly, RPC Shares carrying in aggregate more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights normally exercisable at a general meeting of RPC (including for this purpose, except to the extent otherwise agreed by the Panel, any such voting rights attaching to the RPC Shares that are unconditionally allotted or issued before the Takeover Offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances whether pursuant to exercise of any outstanding subscription rights or conversion rights or otherwise).

- 9 The availability of the Acquisition to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves about and observe any applicable requirements.
- 10 The Acquisition is not being made, directly or indirectly, in, into or from, or by use of the mails of, or by any means of instrumentality (including, but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of, any Restricted Jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws of that jurisdiction.
- 11 The Scheme will be governed by English law and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and to the Conditions and further terms set out in this Appendix I and to be set out in the Scheme Document. The Acquisition will be subject to the applicable requirements of English law, the Takeover Code, the Panel, the Listing Rules, the London Stock Exchange and the UKLA.
- 12 Each of the Conditions will be regarded as a separate Condition and will not be limited by reference to any other Condition.
