RULE 2.7 ANNOUNCEMENT: MANDATORY CASH OFFER

by

Spectre Holdings Limited

to acquire the entire issued share capital

Bonmarché Holdings plc

1. Introduction

Today, Spectre Holdings Limited ("Spectre") unconditionally acquired 26,213,390 Bonmarché Holdings plc ("Bonmarché") Shares from BM Holdings S.A.R.L, at a price of 11.445 pence per Bonmarché Share (the "Acquisition").

Following completion of the Acquisition, Spectre holds 26,213,390 Bonmarché Shares, representing 52.4 per cent. of the existing issued share capital, and voting rights, of Bonmarché.

As a result of the Acquisition, under Rule 9 of the Takeover Code, Spectre is required to make a mandatory cash offer (the "Offer") for the Bonmarché Shares not already held by Spectre at a price of 11.445 pence per Bonmarché Share (such price being no less than the highest price paid by Spectre (or any persons acting in concert with it) for any Bonmarché Share during the 12 months prior to the date of this announcement).

Spectre will make the Offer through the despatch of the Offer Document and Form of Acceptance, both of which will be posted to Bonmarché Shareholders (or made available electronically in accordance with the Takeover Code) as soon as practicable. The Offer Document will contain the formal terms of the Offer.

Certain terms used in this announcement are defined in Appendix III to this announcement.

2. Summary of the Offer

Following the Acquisition, Spectre holds more than 50 per cent. of the existing issued share capital of Bonmarché. Therefore the Offer will be wholly unconditional.

Under the Offer, further terms of which are set out in Appendix I of this announcement and which will be set out in full in the Offer Document and Form of Acceptance, Bonmarché Shareholders will receive:

11.445 pence in cash for each Bonmarché Share

The Offer will extend to all issued Bonmarché Shares which are not held by Spectre (or any persons acting in concert with it) and any further Bonmarché Shares which are unconditionally allotted or issued and fully paid before the Offer closes.

The Offer will remain open for acceptance, subject to the provisions of Appendix I of this announcement and the terms of the Offer Document, until 1.00 p.m. on the First Closing Date of the Offer (or such later time(s) and or date(s) as Spectre may, in accordance with the Takeover Code or with the consent of the Panel, decide).

The Offer values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Bonmarché (not taking into account the exercise of any outstanding options which may have vested) at approximately £5.7 million.

Bonmarché Shares will be acquired fully paid and free from all liens, charges, equitable interests, encumbrances, rights of pre-emption and other third party rights or interests together with all rights attaching thereto including, without limitation, the right to receive all dividends and other distributions (if any) announced, declared, made or paid thereafter.

Spectre reserves the right to reduce the Offer consideration by the amount of any dividend (or other distribution) which is paid or becomes payable by Bonmarché to the holders of Bonmarché Shares.

There are no agreements or arrangements to which Spectre is a party which relate to the circumstances in which it may or may not invoke or seek to invoke a pre-condition or a condition to the Offer.

There are no inducement fees or similar arrangements between Spectre and Bonmarché.

3. Background to and reasons for the Offer

Spectre is a Dubai registered entity incorporated in March 2017 and is 100 per cent. owned by Philip Day. Prior to making the Acquisition, Spectre has not traded.

Bonmarché is a women's value retailer with a footprint of over 300 stores and concessions across the UK. Bonmarché was admitted to AIM in November 2013 and moved to a Main Market listing in October 2015.

Bonmarché has recently released several negative trading updates, including the announcement on the 19 March 2019 when the board announced an estimated underlying PBT loss of between £5.0m - £6.0m for the year ending 31 March 2019. The estimated loss has increased materially from the announcement made in December 2018 when the board announced it estimated underlying PBT for the year to range from breakeven to a £4.0m loss.

Against the backdrop of the significant decline in Bonmarché's profitability, Spectre believes it is well positioned to provide advice, guidance and support to secure the long term future of the Bonmarché business, its stores and employees. The owner of Spectre, Philip Day, has a successful track record within the retail sector, especially in turnaround and distressed situations.

Rule 9 of the Takeover Code requires that where a person acquires an interest in shares which, together with shares in which persons acting in concert with it are interested, carry 30 per cent. or more of the voting rights of a company, such person is required to make a mandatory cash offer for the entire issued equity share capital of the company not already owned by it and persons acting in concert with it. As a result of the Acquisition, and pursuant to Rule 9 of the Takeover Code, Spectre is therefore required to make an offer for all the Bonmarché Shares not already owned by it or by persons acting in concert with it.

4. Information on Bonmarché

Bonmarché is one of the UK's largest women value retailers focused on selling affordable, stylish, premium quality, clothing and accessories in a wide range of sizes to mature women via their own store portfolio, website, mail order catalogues and through the Ideal World TV shopping channel.

Established in 1982, the Bonmarché business has more than 30 years of experience in the retail market, operating out of over 300 stores and concessions across the UK.

For the most recent audited financial full year ended 31 March 2018, Bonmarché reported PBT of £8.0 million on turnover of £186.0 million. The unaudited interim results to 29 September 2018 reported PBT of £2.3 million on turnover of £97.9 million.

It has become apparent that, since the interim results, trading has continued to deteriorate materially with Bonmarché estimating that the underlying loss before tax is expected to be between £5.0m - £6.0m, as announced on 19 March 2019. This is significantly worse than the breakeven to £4.0m loss range set out a few months earlier in the December 2018 announcement.

The audited annual report and accounts of Bonmarché for the 52 week period ended 31 March 2018 can be found on Bonmarché's website (www.bonmarcheplc.co.uk).

5. Information on Spectre

Spectre is a Dubai company registered with the Jebel Ali Free Zone Authority. It was incorporated in March 2017. Prior to the Acquisition, Spectre has not previously traded since its incorporation.

The board of Spectre comprises Alexander Watson and Kate Williams. Their biographies are set out below:

- Alexander Watson graduated in the UK with a degree in law and business management. He started his career in Dubai in 1999 with an Intel company distributor, helping establish their presence in the region and establishing a successful distribution channel. After four years he joined Link Up which provided serviced offices and corporate services to expatriates wishing to establish in Dubai. In 2008, he established Davidson & Co legal consultants with founding partner Jonathon Davidson and has run the Corporate Services Department ever since. Alexander works closely with clients undertaking a wide range of corporate and commercial projects around the world and sits on the board of a diverse portfolio of businesses in many business sectors.
- Kate Williams moved to Dubai in 2005 and commenced working in Corporate Services providing residential sponsorship and company formation services for expatriates wanting to establish businesses in Dubai. In 2008 she joined Davidson & Co legal consultants and has continued to develop her knowledge of the corporate and civil legal environment supporting clients with a wide range of business interests, advising and assisting them in the areas of compliance.

Spectre is 100 per cent. owned by Philip Day, whose biography is described below:

- Philip Day is a businessman and owner of The Edinburgh Woollen Mill Group. Philip started his career at clothing manufacturers Coats Viyella and Wensum before being headhunted to join Aquascutum at the age of 28. He remained at the brand for 5 years, becoming Joint Managing Director. In 2001, Philip Day left Aquascutum and joined The Edinburgh Woollen Mill, where he led a buyout of the company backed by Rutland Fund Management, a private equity firm. In 2002 he undertook a secondary buy out of the Rutland interest. Since that time he has continued to invest in both retail and non-retail opportunities including the purchase of Peacocks, Proquip, Austin Reed, Country Casuals, Jaeger and Jacque Vert brands in the UK.

6. Financing of the Offer

It is estimated that full acceptance of the Offer by Bonmarché Shareholders will result in a maximum cash consideration payable by Spectre of approximately £2.7 million. The cash consideration payable under the Offer will be financed by a loan from Philip Day to Spectre on an interest free, no fixed repayment term basis.

Zeus Capital is satisfied that the necessary cash resources are available to Spectre to enable it to satisfy in full the consideration payable by Spectre under the terms of the Offer.

7. Management, employees and locations

Prior to completing the Acquisition, Spectre has only had access to and reviewed publicly available information on Bonmarché. Spectre has not made an approach to, or had any discussions with, Bonmarché management in relation to this Offer.

Spectre does not believe that the last detailed financial information in the public domain (being the Annual Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2018 and the interim statement for the period ended 29 September 2018) provide a meaningful basis upon which to conduct any substantive due diligence given the publicly disclosed significant change, in the financial performance and position of Bonmarché since this information became available. Spectre has not undertaken any non-public due diligence to date.

It is Spectre's intention to ensure the long-term future of the Bonmarché business as a retailer of women's clothing and accessories through a portfolio of profitable stores and concessions across the UK and via other channels (including its website).

It is Spectre's intention to undertake a detailed review with the involvement of Bonmarché's existing management of all material aspects of the business and its operations including, but not limited to:

- Pricing and discount strategy
- Brand and marketing strategy
- Stores viability
- Head office and distribution centre costs and efficiencies
- Headquarters functions
- Supplier terms
- Supply chain and logistics

- Funding requirements and cost of capital
- Management and board composition

Specifically, in light of the recent trading performance and the loss making position of Bonmarché, Spectre's current intention is to reduce the cost base to a sustainable level whilst minimising the impact on operational performance.

In particular Spectre will:

- Subject to Spectre holding not less than 75 per cent. of the share capital of Bonmarché, and subject to any applicable requirements of the Listing Rules, procure that Bonmarché applies to the London Stock Exchange for the cancellation of trading in the Bonmarché Shares on the Main Market and that Bonmarché is re-registered as a private company.
- Restrict investment in capital expenditure to mandatory projects, being those associated with health and safety or other legal and regulatory obligations in order to preserve cash within the business.
- Be unwilling to support proposals for any dividend payments for the foreseeable future in order to rebuild the cash reserves of the business back to historical levels and to ensure it is not reliant on bank debt.
- Complete a store-by-store profitability assessment with the intention of identifying all current stores that do not make an acceptable contribution to the performance of the business as a result of inappropriate rent levels, staffing levels, or other factors. Those stores identified as underperforming may be closed unless reduced rents, staff reductions or other cost saving measures can be successfully implemented.
- Review the current product range (and future range plans). From Spectre's current knowledge, it believes Bonmarché would benefit from range rationalisation and a more attractive and coherent proposition for its customer, which would include reducing the number of stock keeping units (SKUs).
- Review pricing policy and discount strategy with a view to restoring the gross margin achievement of the business by implementing a "first price, right price" policy.
- Analyse all existing product supply arrangements (price and delivery) with a view to renegotiating supplier terms where it believes these are currently less commercial than available in the wider market. It is difficult to assess the potential savings available at this stage as Spectre has not had access to any supplier contracts.
- Review staffing and working practices at the UK distribution centre to ensure these are optimised. It should however be noted that it has no intention of closing this facility.
- Benchmark Bonmarché's existing logistics arrangements for deliveries to stores. If the existing pricing structure and service level agreements are not competitive, then these contracts will be renegotiated or logistics providers changed.
- Examine internet fulfilment and digital marketing processes with a view to reviewing efficiency of: handling, distribution, click and collect, returns handling processes and of the return on digital marketing spend.
- Assess the size, cost and effectiveness of the head office functions within Bonmarché. Spectre would expect, based on experience in the market in which Bonmarché operates and the potential move from being listed on the Main Market to being a private company, there will be significant opportunities for cost reduction from within the central overhead. It is not Spectre's intention to close or relocate the head office.

- Review existing banking arrangements to ensure that the business has sufficient access to funds at competitive market rates to secure its future during the turnaround period.

Spectre does not intend to redeploy any of the material fixed assets of the business.

Given Bonmarché is a retailer of women's clothing and accessories, Spectre does not believe there is an existing research and development function, and as a result Spectre has no intentions regarding research and development functions.

In carrying out its review, Spectre will call upon appropriate expertise and sector experience support from Philip Day's wider retail business interests. Spectre believes the review detailed above will take approximately three to four months following discussions with Bonmarché management and access to the relevant information.

As a result of its review, and based purely on publicly available information, Spectre expects a material reduction in headcount across Bonmarché.

Following its review, if Spectre deems that any material changes are necessary to the Bonmarché business, Spectre will work with the board to implement these measures and update Bonmarché Shareholders accordingly. It is Spectre's intention to ensure the long-term future of the Bonmarché business, its stores and employees.

Spectre recognises the importance of the Bonmarché management team and employees to the future success of the business and maintaining a balance of skills and functions. Spectre cannot however know, until it has completed its review with management what, if any, changes will ultimately be required and whether these might have an impact on the conditions of employment and the continued employment of the management and employees of Bonmarché. Spectre will however ensure that the existing statutory employment rights, including any pension rights, of the management and employees of Bonmarché will be fully safeguarded. Spectre notes that Bonmarché has a defined contribution pension plan (through which it contributes to employees' individual pension arrangements) and does not have a defined benefit pension plan.

For so long as Bonmarché is listed on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange, Spectre will support Bonmarché in maintaining a board of directors that complies with the Corporate Governance Code and the Listing Rules. Paragraph 10 details the intentions of Spectre in relation to de-listing, compulsory acquisition and re-registration.

8. Bonmarché Share Option Schemes

The Offer will extend to any Bonmarché Shares which are issued or unconditionally allotted whilst the Offer remains open for acceptance (or prior to such earlier time and/or date as Spectre may, subject to the Takeover Code, determine) as a result of the exercise of options granted under the Bonmarché Share Option Schemes prior to the date of this announcement.

The Offer may impact on the options held by the Bonmarché Option holders. Bonmarché Option holders will be contacted regarding the effect of the Offer on their rights under the options and appropriate proposals will be made to participants as soon as practicable after the Offer Document is published.

9. Disclosure of interests in Bonmarché

As a result of the Acquisition, Spectre is interested in 26,213,390 Bonmarché Shares, representing 52.4 per cent. of the existing issued share capital, and voting rights, of Bonmarché.

Save for the interest of Spectre described above, as at the date of this announcement, neither Spectre, nor any directors of Spectre, nor, so far as Spectre is aware, any person acting in concert with Spectre, owns or controls any Bonmarché Shares or any securities convertible or exchangeable into Bonmarché Shares (including pursuant to any long exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the prices of securities) or any rights to subscribe for or purchase the same, or holds any options (including traded options) in respect of, or has any option to acquire, any Bonmarché Shares or has entered into any derivatives referenced to Bonmarché Shares ("Relevant Bonmarché Shares") which remain outstanding, nor does any such person have any arrangement in relation to Relevant Bonmarché Shares. An "arrangement" for these purposes also includes any indemnity or option arrangement, or any agreement or understanding, formal or informal, of whatever nature, relating to Relevant Bonmarché Shares which may be an inducement to deal or refrain from dealing in such securities.

Neither Spectre, nor any directors of Spectre, nor, so far as Spectre is aware, any person acting in concert with Spectre, has borrowed or lent any Relevant Bonmarché Shares (save for any borrowed Relevant Bonmarché Shares which have been either on-lent or sold).

Neither Spectre nor any of its associates (within the meaning of the Takeover Code) has procured any irrevocable commitment or letter of intent in respect of any Relevant Bonmarché Shares.

Spectre confirms that it will make an Opening Position Disclosure, setting out the details required to be disclosed by it under Rule 8.1(a) of the Takeover Code by no later than 12 noon on 16 April 2019.

10. De-listing, Compulsory acquisition and Re-registration

If Spectre has, by virtue of its shareholding and acceptances of the Offer, increased its aggregate shareholding to not less than 75 per cent. of the share capital of Bonmarché and subject to any applicable requirements of the Listing Rules, Spectre intends to procure that Bonmarché applies to the London Stock Exchange for the cancellation of trading in the Bonmarché Shares on the Main Market. It is anticipated that such cancellation will take effect no earlier than 20 business days after Spectre has reached the 75 per cent. threshold, subject to compliance with applicable requirements of the Listing Rules. The cancellation of trading of Bonmarché Shares would significantly reduce the liquidity and marketability of any Bonmarché Shares not acquired by Spectre.

If Spectre receives acceptances under the Offer in respect of, and/or otherwise acquires or contracts to acquire, 90 per cent. or more in nominal value of Bonmarché Shares to which the Offer relates and of the voting rights carried by those Bonmarché Shares, Spectre intends to exercise its rights in accordance with sections 974 to 991 of the Act to acquire compulsorily the remaining Bonmarché Shares on the same terms as the Offer.

It is also intended that, following and assuming the cancellation of trading of Bonmarché Shares on the Main Market, Bonmarché will be re-registered as a private company.

11. General

The availability of the Offer to persons not resident in the UK may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Any persons who are subject to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the UK should inform themselves about and observe any applicable requirements.

Appendix I sets out the principal further terms of the Offer. Appendix II contains source notes relating to certain information contained in this announcement. Certain terms used in this announcement are defined in Appendix III to this announcement.

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3. Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).
